Redstone. Your World Awaits.

Villawood's Redstone provides everything to create a connected community. Get amongst the hustle and bustle at the future town centre, connect with your neighbours at Club Redstone or immerse yourself in nature with over 110 hectares of open spaces.

Redstone has been thoughtfully master-planned. Walking and bike trails create safe, green links between neighbourhoods, parklands, Club Redstone, future schools and Redstone town centre.

There's a range of home options whether you're looking for a large homesite, with views across the Sunbury escarpment to build your family home, or, if you're looking low maintenance town home living, your dream home awaits at Redstone.
